

I want to respond to the present request that you to stop regulating broadband service. I want to express my concern about being swallowed up by a big company. I appreciate the ability to subscribe to an independent ISP such as Sonic.net. BellSouth's request would badly affect consumers with regards to your available choice of Internet Service for broadband.